State Farm Bureau Queen Chosen Tuesday

A new Miss Virginia Farm Bureau queen will be chosen at the Virginia Farm Bureau Federation annual meeting, Tuesday, Dec. 2,1975 at the Holiday Inn - Scope in Norfolk.

She will receive an all expense paid trip to the American Farm Bureau convention in St. Louis, Jan. 5-8, where she will be recognized as Virginia's Farm Bureau queen.

This year there are 35 entries in the contest, the largest number yet. Each contestant was chosen by her county Farm Bureau.

County Farm Bureau queens will be judged equally on poise, general apperance, a personal interview with the judges, and content and delivery of an original speech on "What I Like About Farm Life".

MissVirginia Farm Bureau will make various personal appearances at public and Farm Bureau meetings throughout the state in 1976.

The 1975 Miss Virginia Farm Bureau is Melinda Wampler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wampler of Rockingham County. As her final duty, she will assist in crowning the new Miss Virginia Farm Bureau.

Miss Johanna Coleman is the current Appomattox County Farm Bureau queen.

The young lawyer thought it would be to his advantage to get the elderly witness rattled.

"And now, madam," he said, "I must ask you a personal question. How old are you?"

"Young man," she replied, "it isn't more than an hour since the judge objected to hearsay evidence. I don't remember being born, so all I know of it is hearsay."

...and of Indian removal; the story of Osceola, the Seminole leader who welds his scattered nation into a fighting force capable of resisting the United States Army for seven years. To summarize, it is a saga of the American past that speaks to us today.

A lovely book called The Shell by Hugh and Marguerite Stix has been given to the Library by Mrs. Mary Jane Hoffman in memory of her husband, Carl J. Hoffman. Sea Shells and their shape, color, etc. have enchanted mankind throughout the ages. They are a special gift of nature. The authors are the founders and directors of the Stix Rare Shell Gallery of new York - perhaps the only one of its kind in the world. There are 203 illustrations in color and is really a beautiful book.

For those who love romance and the "happy ever after" ending there are several new paperbacks by Faith Baldwin, one especially good called Make Believe. There are also a number of hardbacks by this same author, some on the first floor and some on the second.

More children are coming to Story Hour but still not enough. All pre-schoolers in the County should be there every other Tuesday at 10 a.m. December 2 and 16 are the dates for this month. Parents can wait or bring the children and come back for them. So let's have a big turn-out in December.

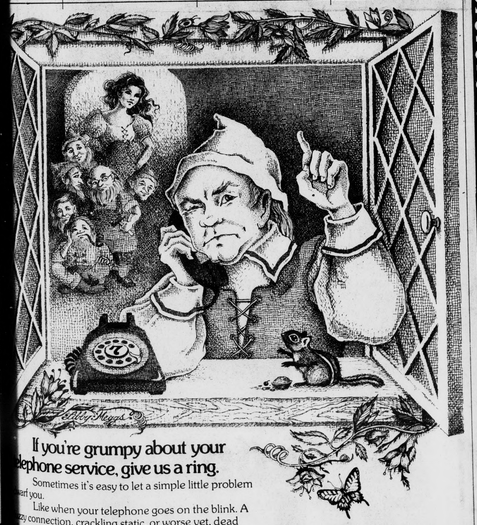
Friends were notified last Sunday of the death of Mrs. Minnie Thornton Hoffman of Schenectady, N. Y. Mrs. Hoffman was a former resident of our city.

A neighbor boy knocked at the door.

"Can Timmy come out and play?" he asked.

"I'm sorry, but he's taking a nap," replied Timmy's mother.

"Then," inquired the boy hopefully, "can Timmy's new bike come out and play?"



If you're grumpy about your telephone service, give us a ring.
Sometimes it's easy to let a simple little problem upset you.
Like when your telephone goes on the blink. A noisy connection, crackling static, or worse yet, dead silence—they can all drive you up the wall.
What can you do about it?
You can call us, that's what. Don't be bashful. After all, we don't know you have a problem unless you tell us about it. And that's really why we're here. To help you. We need to make certain your service is service you can call on 24 hours a day.
Believe us. We know, a phone that doesn't work properly is enough to make anyone unhappy. So if your phone service is suffering these days, call our repair service. We'll cut the problem down to size.
Another classic way your phone company comes through with service.
